ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS (ELA) WRITING RUBRICS

Grade 8 items that are not machine-scored—i.e., constructed-response, extended constructed-response, and extended writing response items—are manually scored using either a holistic rubric or a two-trait rubric.

Four-Point Holistic Rubric

Genre: Narrative

A holistic rubric evaluates one major feature, which is ideas. On the Georgia Milestones EOG assessment, a holistic rubric is scored from zero to four. Each point value represents the difference in the levels or quality of the student’s work. To score an item on a holistic rubric, the scorer need only choose the description and associated point value that best represents the student’s work. Increasing point values represent a greater understanding of the content and, thus, a higher score.

Seven-Point, Two-Trait Rubric

Genre: Argumentative or Informational/Explanatory

A two-trait rubric, on the other hand, evaluates two major traits, which are conventions and ideas. On the Georgia Milestones EOG assessment, a two-trait rubric contains two scales, one for each trait, ranging from zero to three on one scale (conventions) and zero to four on the other (ideas). A score is given for each of the two traits, for a total of seven possible points for the item. To score an item on a two-trait rubric, a scorer must choose the description and associated point value for each trait that best represents the student’s work. The two scores are added together. Increasing point values represent a greater understanding of the content and, thus, a higher score.

On the following pages are the rubrics that will be used to evaluate writing on the Georgia Milestones Grade 8 English Language Arts EOG assessment.

| This trait examines the writer’s ability to effectively develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques, descriptive details, and clear event sequences based on a text that has been read. | 4 | The student’s response is a well-developed narrative that fully develops a real or imagined experience based on text as a stimulus.
- Effectively establishes a situation and a point of view and introduces a narrator and/or characters
- Organizes an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically
- Effectively uses narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, pacing, and reflection, to develop rich, interesting experiences, events, and/or characters
- Uses a variety of words and phrases consistently and effectively to convey the sequence of events, signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another, and show the relationships among experiences and events
- Uses precise words, phrases, and sensory language to convey experiences and events and capture the action
- Provides a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events
- Integrates ideas and details from source material effectively
- Has very few or no errors in usage and/or conventions that interfere with meaning* |
| 3 | The student’s response is a complete narrative that develops a real or imagined experience based on text as a stimulus.
- Establishes a situation and introduces one or more characters
- Organizes events in a clear, logical order
- Uses narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, pacing, and reflection, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters
- Uses words and/or phrases to indicate sequence, signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another, and show the relationships among experiences and events
- Uses words, phrases, and details to capture the action and convey experiences and events
- Provides an appropriate conclusion
- Integrates some ideas and/or details from source material
- Has a few minor errors in usage and/or conventions that interfere with meaning* |

| This trait examines the writer's ability to effectively develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques, descriptive details, and clear event sequences based on a text that has been read. | 2 | The student’s response is an incomplete or oversimplified narrative based on text as a stimulus.
- Introduces a vague situation and at least one character
- Organizes events in a sequence but with some gaps or ambiguity
- Attempts to use a narrative technique, such as dialogue, description, pacing, or reflection, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters
- Uses occasional signal words inconsistently and ineffectively to indicate sequence, signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another, or show the relationships among experiences and events
- Uses some words or phrases inconsistently and ineffectively to convey experiences, and events, and capture the action
- Provides a weak or ambiguous conclusion
- Attempts to integrate ideas or details from source material
| | | • | Has frequent errors in usage and conventions that sometimes interfere with meaning* |
| | 1 | The student’s response provides evidence of an attempt to write a narrative based on text as a stimulus.
- Response is a summary of the story.
- Provides a weak or minimal introduction of a situation or character
- May be too brief to demonstrate a complete sequence of events, or signal shifts in one time frame or setting to another, or show relationships among experiences and events
- Shows little or no attempt to use dialogue, description, pacing, or reflection to develop experiences, events, and/or characters
- Uses words that are inappropriate, overly simple, or unclear
- Provides few, if any, words to convey experiences, or events, or capture the action
| | | • | Provides a minimal or no conclusion
| | | • | May use few, if any, ideas or details from source material
| | | • | Has frequent major errors in usage and conventions that interfere with meaning* |
| | 0 | The student’s response is flawed for various reasons and will receive a condition code:
- Code A: Blank
- Code B: Copied
- Code C: Too Limited to Score/Illegible/Incomprehensible
- Code D: Non-English/Foreign Language
- Code E: Off Topic/Off Task/Offensive |

| Idea, Development, Organization, and Coherence | 4 | The student’s response is a well-developed argument that effectively relates and supports claims with clear reasons and relevant text-based evidence.
- Effectively introduces claim(s)
- Uses an organizational strategy to present reasons and relevant evidence logically
- Supports claim(s) with clear reasons and relevant evidence using specific, well-chosen facts, details, or other information from credible sources and demonstrates a good understanding of the topic or texts
- Acknowledges and counters opposing claim(s), as appropriate
- Uses words, phrases, and/or clauses that effectively connect and show direct, strong relationships among claim(s), reasons, and evidence
- Establishes and maintains a formal style that is appropriate for the task, purpose, and audience
- Provides a strong concluding statement or section that logically follows from the argument presented |
| 3 | The student’s response is a complete argument that relates and supports claims with some text-based evidence.
- Clearly introduces claim(s)
- Uses an organizational strategy to present some reasons and evidence
- Uses specific facts, details, definitions, examples, and/or other information from sources to develop claim(s)
- Attempts to acknowledge and/or counter opposing claim(s), as appropriate
- Uses words and/or phrases to connect ideas and show relationships among claim(s), reasons, and evidence
- Uses a formal style fairly consistently for task, purpose, and audience
- Provides a concluding statement or section that follows from the argument presented |
| 2 | The student’s response is an incomplete or oversimplified argument that partially supports claims with loosely related, text-based evidence.
- Attempts to introduce claim(s)
- Attempts to use an organizational structure which may be formulaic
- Develops, sometimes unevenly, reasons and/or evidence to support claim(s)
- Makes little, if any, attempt to acknowledge or counter opposing claim(s)
- Attempts to support claim(s) with facts, reasons, and other evidence sometimes, but logic and relevancy are often unclear
- Uses few words or phrases to connect ideas; connections are not always clear
- Uses a formal style inconsistently or an informal style that does not fit task, purpose, or audience
- Provides a weak concluding statement or section that may not follow the argument presented |
| 1 | The student’s response is a weak attempt to write an argument and does not support claims with adequate text-based evidence.
- May not introduce claim(s)/claim(s) must be inferred
- May be too brief to demonstrate an organizational structure, or no structure is evident
- Has minimal support for claim(s)
- Makes no attempt to acknowledge or counter opposing claim(s)
- Uses minimal or no words or phrases to connect ideas
- Uses a very informal style that is not appropriate for task, purpose, or audience
- Provides a minimal or no concluding statement or section |
| 0 | The student’s response is flawed for various reasons and will receive a condition code:
- Code A: Blank
- Code B: Copied
