Three CCPS Schools Confirmed for the Cambridge Program

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) congratulates Elite Scholars Academy (ESA), Arnold Elementary School (AES) and Suder Elementary School (SES) on being confirmed as fully eligible to join the Cambridge Assessment International Education organization. Once the district/school has completed the process and receive final approval, the three schools will join the Cambridge network.

Upon completing this process, Elite Scholars, Arnold and Suder Elementary will become the only schools in Georgia to be a part of the Cambridge Assessment International Education.

According to the Cambridge Assessment International Education website, the program's overall history dates back 150 years. It was created to raise learning standards. In 1998, the "Local Examinations Syndicate" established Cambridge Assessment International Education – the world's largest provider of international education programs and qualifications for 5 to 19-year-olds.

Cambridge programs and qualifications set the global standard for international education. They are created by subject experts, rooted in academic rigor and reflect the latest educational research. The four stages of the Cambridge Pathway lead seamlessly from primary through secondary and pre-university years. Schools can shape the curriculum around how they want students to learn.

CCPS is excited to welcome Cambridge Assessment International Education to our district and celebrates the high honor this designation carries for the students and staffs of Elite Scholars, Arnold and Suder Elementary schools.
