Superintendent to Livestream Welcome Back Message on August 1st

JONESBORO – Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) Superintendent Dr. Morcease J. Beasley will welcome all employees and school-based staff back to school via livestream from the CCPS Studio on Tuesday, August 1, 2017 as they prepare for the arrival of all students for the new 2017-18 School Year on August 7.

The Superintendent will be live from 10:00 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. to share a special message that highlights the district’s “Commitment to High Performance” and his “Critical Areas of Focus” for the start of the new school year.

To view the live broadcast, district staff and members of the Clayton Community can tune into the public access channel, Channel 24, designated by Comcast Cable. The live stream can also be viewed by visiting the Clayton County Public Schools website, www.clayton.k12.ga.us. We hope you are able to join us for this special broadcast as we start the year strong in our commitment to being one of the highest performing school districts in Georgia and the nation.

About Clayton County Public Schools
