Clayton County Public Schools to Host Strategic Improvement Plan Community Update Meeting

JONESBORO – On Saturday, September 30, Clayton County Public Schools will host a community meeting to update all school stakeholders on developments in the school district Strategic Improvement Plan. In addition, the meeting will allow stakeholders to actively participate in the district’s review and revision process of the Strategic Improvement Plan as it relates to the districts Mission/Vision, Strategic Goals and Belief Statements. The plan also supports the comprehensive local education agency improvement plan and serves as a blueprint to continuously review and provide updates to support the achievement of the school system goals and objectives. The meeting is open to the general public.
